DEPUTATION NIGHT AT COUNCIL MEETING

The Strathmore Town Council held a regular meeting on Tuesday night Mayor Strathmore presiding, and all the members of the Council present.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read, and upon resolution, confirmed.

The matter of insuring the members of the Fire Brigade was reported upon favorably, and the policy offered by Ford J. Dunn, in the North British Mercantile Insurance Co., having passed the eagle eye of solicitor T. M. Aves, was accepted.

The policy protects each of twenty-eight active firemen to the extent of $20,000 in case of accidental death, either as a configuration or while training; protects each member to the extent of $40 per month in case of injury, and an additional $10 per month in case of having to go to hospital.

Councillor Quinn was appointed to arrange with Mr. Dunn in regard to getting the names of the beneficiaries who should be protected under the policy.

Councillor Schulte reported that he had seen a note another light in the Hoffman addition.

The meeting might be termed "Deputation Night", no less than four deputations appearing before the august body.

Number one, a deputation of ladies from the Independent Irregulars Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, were represented by Mrs. T. E. Wright and Mrs. A. A. Moore. These ladies presented the needs for the establishment of a Public Library, which has been under consideration of the famous Daughters for some time. Mrs. A. A. Moore, Chapter having learned that they could only secure Government aid through dealing with the (Down Council), submitted their proposition to a bunch of "mere men".

The Mayor and Councillors gave the matter their sympathetic hearing, and passed it on for further scrutiny by Mr. T. M. Aves, who will in the near future, investigate the Government conditions, and report at a later meeting.

It was reported that a few cautions were so far been able to avoid paying their membership dues to Oliver Wright, and he will be instructed to bring in the money for their permit to exist.

Capt. Holly made a strong appeal on behalf of the Red Cross Society for financial assistance, and outlined very ably the very important work being carried on throughout the Province. The matter will be left to the 1928 Council to decide.

Duputation number three, led by Ben Fuesenden, and championed by T. E. Wright, presented the needs of the Strathmore Bank for financial aid. Mr. Fuesenden stressed the importance of furnishing order and proper skating conditions for the children, and outlined very impressively the difficulties under which a few citizens had been struggling for several years.

Councillor and Councillors were fully impressed with the necessity of supplying such a community service, and intended to take a real active part in the work.

First by appointing a governing board to consist of Councillor Quinn, Councillor Schulte, the first, a farmer, and secondly, with a pronounced proclivity fully developed, to get full value for each "baubee" that might be expended. This board will work in conjunction with the already elected executive of the skating rink.

Then, to facilitate the work, a grant of $100 was made, which amount just about meets the deficit that the skating rink executive have had to bear.

CURLER'S SOCIAL EVENING THURSDAY

Don't forget to attend the dinner and social on Thursday, November 17th, at 7 p.m., at the Strathmore Memorial Hall dining room. It is desired that each member, both ladies and men, will endeavor to bring a prospective curler.

The lady curlers have kindly consented to take charge of the dinner, which they so ably handled at the annual event last Spring. A most enjoyable evening is assured.

With a continuation of the present cold weather, it is hoped to have the curling game in full swing before long.

A number of new members have signified their intention of joining up, and the executive would appreciate all those desirous of playing this year, to kindly hand in their names at once to the secretary so that a full list can be made up, and the skips selected.

JOINT MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD SUNDAY EVENING

The joint memorial service held Sunday evening in the Memorial Hall, commemorating the names of those who made the supreme sacrifice in the Great War, was very beautiful in its sincerity, dignity and impressiveness.

Revs. Wilkinson and Walter conducted the service.

The hymns selected were most appropriate. The beautiful old hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past", chosen for so many various occasions, never loses any of its charm, but grows more beautiful with each rendering.

The Choral Society led the singing and proved a worthy part of the service.

The prayers throughout marked by a devout humility and sincerity.

Mr. G. H. Parick's singing of the Recessional, was deeply impressive.

Rev. Winter preached a very able and interesting sermon from the text: "Their Name Liveth For Evermore". He made special reference to the worthy lives and characters of a number who played a noble and world-famous part during the war, but in private life were self-sacrificing Christian men. Among those were Earl Roberts (Fighting Bob), Lord Kitchener, Sir Evelyn Wood, Sir Harry Wilson, etc., etc.

The Boy Scouts, under Scoutmaster Fred J. Dunn, and the Girl Guides under their captain, Mrs. D. Fynew, occupied seats in the front of the Hall.

After the benediction, the audience sang the National Anthem, a fitting close to the service.

P. F. CASORAIN, M.P.

Who is in a great measure responsible for the action of the Government in arranging a postal service, by air, during the winter months, to towns on the north shore of the St. Lawrence, Anticosti, and Magdalen Islands. hundred acres, and others in various amounts.

Much of the wheat in this district, as apt of its fine appearance while standing, has graded low, much of it being five and six feet. The yield has been very fair, around thirty bushels per acre, but the grades are all low. Ours have yielded as high as 75 bushels per acre and barley also yielded well.

It is reported that A. F. Hecke and Archie McNeill have purchased the threshing outfit belonging to A. Pierson, and will operate it themselves where the weather is fit to thresh again.

Mrs. William Allan and her daughter, Nancy, will leave in a few days for Scotland, where they will visit until after the new year.

C. H. Cowell has rented the Bapert land, formerly worked by Sam Heuschler.

"John the Baptist" Johnston, of Strathmore, has been delivering carrots, beets and turnips in this district from his extensive gardens on the 18th Will farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie MacDonald have been in poor health for a number of months, but is slowly improving.

Seven ladies formed, eight passengers, four Sundeckers, half a dozen Huggins and fourteen Chevrolts had been ordered for delivery in the Inverlake District this fall, but when returns on wheat cars began coming in, No. 6, feed, more than feed, etc., those orders were cancelled.

INVERLAKE ITEMS

PEACE RIVER HIGHWAY TO BE IMPROVED

As the result of a trip of inspection into the north country by Hon. O. L. McPheerson, minister of public works, and J. D. Robertson, deputy minister, it has been decided that further improvement will have to be undertaken on the permanent location of the Peace River Highway before travel will be possible over the road into the north.

BURNS BANCH BAR U RANCH

One of the largest deals in the history of Alberta ranch property is announced from Calgary where the Geo. Lane company has sanctioned the sale of the bar U and Willow Creek ranches with all their stock and equipment to F. Burns and Company. The transaction involves over $750,000.

Councillor William Wilson was appointed Deputy Mayor for the balance of the Council year. He is expected to furnish the customary cigars before actively managing in his new office.

Duputation number four, a representative from the Snow Shovelers Union No. 999, in the town of John Baptist Robinson, suggested the matter of a snow shovelling service by his organization.

The Mayor, the Minister of Public Works and Councillors Minor and Saunders claimed that they had removed the snow from their premises, and thought it would be good exercise for the rest of the ratepayers to follow their example—result, no action, and poor John was out of luck.

Councillor Schulte is quite a student of art, and he has become seized with the idea that the walls of T. D. Woods should be adorned with art pictures. Accordingly, he presented a motion that photos of ex-mayors Lambert, Butler and Bell should be secured, suitably framed, and hung in the Town Hall, and that similar action be taken in connection with each Mayor as he "retires".

The arrangement with the Canadian Legion in regard to cancelling liability for insurance, was reported by secretary D. N. Giffen of M. D. Bow Valley, as being agreeable to the municipal body.

The secretary was instructed to prepare the new Fire By-law.

Current accounts amounting to about $240 were referred to the Finance Committee for payment.

ANALYSIS BY EXPERT — ON BREEDING —

No single feature of the racing year has so engrossed the attention of the bloodstock pundits as the failure of Man o' War's progeny to perform to the standard expected of them. Various reasons have been advanced for this debacle, but bloodstock students are a unit in declaring there is no parallel case in the whole history of bloodstock breeding.

Naturally the subject must still remain a matter of conjecture, for he is in position to state with any degree of certainty why Man o' War has failed so miserably as a sire this year. It is an axiom that coming events cast their shadows before and if we examined the achievements of Man o' War's progeny in 1925, the year he established his racing record, we should have been prepared for exactly what occurred this year. Irrefutably, two year-olds last year with the exception of Seapa Flow were decidedly mediocre and there were grave doubts as to the ability of last year's favorite progeny to live up to his first season's promise. And these fears proved to be only too well founded. Seapa Flow failed to win a race this year, the balance of his two-year-olds reared this year as poorly as one might expect from their juvenile performances, save that War Eagle had the good fortune to win the valuable Miami Cup Handicap.

Cruader, Mars, Edith Cavell and Gunboat, along with Seapa Flow, were Man o' War's most important winners last year. Cruader, outside of his Saturday, was a bitter disappointment. Mars did better than was expected. Edith Cavell, a filly, also was a failure, and Gunboat, a jumper, did not reproduce his last year's form. Man o' War bowed at the end of his second season and had to be retired, leg inflammation cut short the career of American Flag, Mars and Seapa Flow. Cruader has yet to take a lame still and his last of form was inexcusable.

Diagnosis as to his less than the full of Man o' War's older progeny the dismal showing of his juveniles has been the greatest surprise. Still, with the exception of Seapa Flow, none of his earlier two-year-olds set the world afire. American Flag, Crusader, Mars and Seapa Flow have never, did give promise in their first year of something approaching first class form, but this year's crop of two-year-olds by Man o' War has been hopeless.

Just how many sons and daughters by Man o' War were foaled in 1925? I have no means of knowing, but I do know over twenty juveniles by Man o' War were registered with the Jockey Club this spring. Of these but five—Bateau, Gene, Caenen, Slates Ship and War Whoop—have won races and collectively these five have accounted for six races, valued at $8,600. The only stake winner in the lot is Bateau, whose Fashion stakes was worth $5,000. Of the four others, two are out of Star Shoot mare—Gene, out of Pairy Wand and Slates Ship, out of Star Pansy. Bateau is a full sister to Cruader. Caenen is out of the Yankee mare offensive, Bateau out of the Keen-

BIG MONEY FOR JOCKEY

NEW YORK.—When Jockey Mack Garner, signed up with the William Greider stable for 1925 it was for the larger salary ever paid a rider in America—$25,000 or $40,000. With few and good success, Garner will make $100,000 next year. It is said he already has won this much here this season, winning $5,000 and more on his mounts. Garner had mended his ways and doesn't get "nigger rich," as he formerly did when he got his hands on a few thousand. Two years ago at Fairmount Park (temp) rode one of Bill Cain's beaters and made Rogers Hornsby win $5,000 on the race. When Garner got his big gut riding and began "good times," he now has stopped all this foolishness.

SPORT NOTES

CANADIAN SPORT CHATTER

Babe Dye, Black Hawk sharpshooter, was the first casualty of the season in hockey rinks. He collided with Town and practicing at Winnipeg and will be out for the season with a broken leg.

Queens College Football Club are agitating to have all the inter-collegiate rugby receipts pooled. It is likely that Western University of London will be admitted to the college union next year, thus rounding out a four club circuit.

Frank Tuttle, of Vancouver, is reported to be behind the move in re-organizing amateur hockey at the coast. Frank has the rink and the amateurs would make a vast hit particularly if they could win the Allan Cup.

There is an uproar in Boston over the release of Red Stuart to Minneapolis. Stuart was always popular in Montreal.

Montreal little circles are saluted over the recent decision by the coach Kid Roy retained his friend Geo. Chabot. With two French Canadian boys coaching for the time Montreal scored 13,000 strong to win the battle.

Vancouver is all worked up over the showing of Jimmy McLaughlin, who started all his fighting around Vancouver Island. They claim him as a native son and he rose to maintain stardom there has been watched with interest.

King Clancy's father, Tom Clancy, was one of the most noted rugby stars in Canada. He and Tom Horcher, father of the famous Babe Dye, both starred in the Ottawa University scrum thirty years ago.

Winnipeg is one of the greatest cradles of hockey. Fully 75 big league hockey players saw the light and learned their hockey at the "Peg."

Mike Shea, well known sport scribe of the Winnipeg Free Press was one of the greatest Canadian pugilists and horse players. He played on the Ottawa wireless team that didn't lose a game for four years.

INDIAN SUMMER

Morning—a tang in the air. A bracing trace of frosty atmosphere And mellowed smoke from forest fires afar.

The thrasher's hum is heard and staccato fills the air.

The bluffs their autumn foliage gaily gay. Russet and yellow and red amid the green.

The birds in noisy flocks assemble now.

Full fed with autumn's bounty, but they go.

Ere long to southern climes, for soon the snow.

Will cover with its mantle all our land.

A north breeze blows with touch of winter chill.

But crickets chirp—for it is summer still.

ENGLISH SPORTING AUTHORITY FAVORS JACK DEMPSEY

The London, Eng., Times, one of the big sporting authorities in the old land, takes a very strong position in favor of Dempsey, after it had seen the official film of the championship fight between Tommy Tunney and Dempsey at Chicago, which was awarded by the judges to Tunney. This film was shown at Hirth's Theatre last Friday and Saturday.

"Broadly speaking, the film is an exceptionally good one because it is so near and—so shown privately to a number of press representatives, at any rate—admirably timed as well. Though the record of most of that now notorious seventh round is manifestly clear, the actual time taken by Tunney to regain his feet is hurried over in a most astounding manner. No one who did not see the fight itself would have grasped fully the important fact that Dempsey's ill luck in the last round was due to his having discouraged the greatest hearted man that ever drew on a boxing glove.

In the first place, it is clear that in the seventh round—as indeed, in the six previous ones—Dempsey is boxing in his own way quite as cleverly and much more fairly than Tommy Dempsey is alternating his animalistic springs into close quarters with a swaying from and slipping of many of Tunney's best and hardest punches. To anyone who understands the true in wardness of the Dempsey style of fighting he is boxing with his head (this time as well as with his hands and feet). He does, in fact, draw his man at last and get in, first, the slow and knock-out punch of Tunney and then, with almost incredible precision and rapidity, three more blows, all but one, which is a glancing one, have that would jar.

"When Tunney goes into a slitting position, his left hand still everything in lower right. And up to a point the film is a clear enough revelation of the true situation. It is obvious for one thing, that Tunney claims that he could have won and resumed fighting in four seconds is a proposition one. He is for long after that better people a man whose mind is in a haze. He is, in fact, dead, and although an interruption of the film deprives one of any chance to check the referee's interrupted and apparently leisurely count, there can be little doubt that, after two seconds in the same position, Tunney is still struggling hard to regain his full wits.

In the Wrong Corner
Dempsey, after a moment's attempt to stand over his fallen opponent, gives way to the referee in a docile and disciplined manner and—after a moment's delay—retires to a distant corner. But not the right one! There he stands—so the eyes witness—but not the film tell us—quietly, with his arms stretched and resting on the ropes. Seconds and seconds elapse, and the referee once him to move to a neutral corner! However, after an amazing rest, a still more amazing piece of luck and refereeing, Tunney goes up to the ring, spends the rest of the round rushing round the ring, with Dempsey after him. Once, when giving up the chase, Dempsey actually motions to the "out-

Municipal district offices in all parts of Alberta have been found to be in good condition this year, inspectors report the books and accounts to be satisfactory and the district affairs in a generally healthy state.

BRIAN SEES DOLLAR FLOW TO LONDON FOR INVESTMENT PURPOSES

LONDON—Sterling's climb to $447, the highest point since December, 1914, is the source of much satisfaction and confidence to the London financial community. The rise is especially noteworthy in view of the fact that this is the normal time of year when British imports of American cotton, wheat, etc., place the heaviest burden on sterling exchange. It is felt that the situation completely vindicates the views of those who have urged the return of the gold standard to its great opportunity.

It is the general belief that the rise will not continue to a point involving gold shipments from the United States to Britain, but, as British authorities expect the continuance of the present low interest rate in America for many months, there is every reason to expect a continued flow of dollars to London seeking profitable employment. At the same time it is realized that this implies the building up of a huge dollar balance in London, which the local market will be eventually called on to liquidate.

Industrial interests are distinguished from banking interests also welcome the move, and the demand for lower bank rates in England is becoming steadily more vocal and insistent. There is also the belief here that the apparent decision of the Federal Reserve Board to co-operate with Great Britain central banks means a European stabilization, which must

CARELESS DRIVERS MAY BE CHECKED WHEN WITNESSES MORE WILLING TO TESTIFY

Difficulty in obtaining justice for victims of automobile accident cases comes around the liability of official agencies to get witnesses of such accidents to appear in court and if some way could be devised to get around this obstacle it would mark an important contribution to the opinion of executive officers of the Alberta Motor Association.

"Undoubtedly it is expecting a great deal of a party to take time away from work to appear in court in such a case, particularly in the instance of a worker who loses remuneration for the time thus spent," states President

Charles H. Grant, K.C., of the A.M.A., who cites the manner in which the Detroit Motor Club coped with the difficulty.

This club has had a wide experience in safety work, it is pointed out. Recently when it found that there were but seven convictions in 1925 out of fatalities in a year, the club got busy. A reward was offered of $100 to witnesses who would aid in convicting reckless or careless drivers. In the following eleven weeks sixteen convictions were secured.

The reward made it possible for witnesses to take time off from their work with the result that they contributed their bit to seeing that justice was done. Everyone has a responsibility when he sees an automobile accident, reward or unwarned, he should make an effort to tag his version of the incident before a court. In this way only, A.M.A. executives declare, will the careless and reckless driver be driven from the highway, an end de-

WHY NOT THE BEST?

When a very superior article can be had at the same price as an inferior article one has no hesitation in taking the better one. That is human nature. In the Canadian newspaper field there is one "best," and this fact is admitted by all. The New York Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is in a class entirely by itself, and Canada is proud of it. It is a wonderful combination of three publications, a great newspaper, a clean, wholesome family magazine and an agricultural paper without an equal. All three in one big 72 page paper, and all three for the price of one—only a dollar a year. You should have your own local paper without doubt, but your home would be enriched by the weekly visit of The Family Herald and Weekly Star. You will never regret it. Monthly wished for by every law-abiding mortal.

WHY NOT A TRUST COMPANY?

Recent news dispatches from the city where the Tammany is famous convey information of the death of a son of one of the founders of that notable institution, friendless, penniless, alone in Bellevue Hospital. Bequeathed the quarter of a million dollars in cash only a few years ago, after he had been provided with a good education, this scion of a man of outstanding organizing ability had lost everything, life included, in being a "good fellow".

One of the leading editorialists south of the international boundary epitomizes the case with: "To leave your son money, without having taught him how to use it, is to make misery your executor." Canadian Financier, October 5th, 1927.

HEARD ON THE STREET

A colored parson, calling upon one of his flock, found the object of his visit out in the back yard working among his hen coops. He noticed with surprise that there were no chickens. "Why, Brudder Brown," he asked, "What's all yo' chickens?" "Huh," grunted Brudder Brown without looking up, "some fool nigger left 'em out open all day all week home." This has no reference to Harry Miner's pet chicken.

One evening during the summer, as a little girl's mother was putting her to bed she said, "Now, so right to sleep, dear. Don't be afraid, for God's angels are watching over you."

Shortly afterwards, while the mother and father were reading, the child called to her mother, "Yes dear?" replied the mother. "What is it?"

"God's angels are buzzing around just awful, mother," cried the little girl, "and one of 'em's bitten me!"

Teacher: "So you admit the lad was partly to the pump and was drenched with water? Now, what part did you take in this disgraceful affair?"

Mike (meekly): "The left leg, sir."

"Let me have a September morning sandwich, waiter."

Bill Williams: "What is that, sir?"

"Cold chicken without any dressing."

Young lady (after a dance): "There! My heel's gone! That settles me this evening."

Jim Weir: "Oh, darn it! Don't you carry spare parts?"

Heard on Railway Avenue: "Darling, do you know that it is twenty-four hours since we became engaged?"

"Twenty-four hours. So it is, sweet heart."

"Yes, twenty-four hours ago you asked me to be your own little wife."

"Darling, and I was quite yesterday."

"No, it wasn't I—guess again."

Newlyrich: "About that party you are going to give. I was getting some points from Mr. Blank today. He says whenever they give a swell dinner they have candles on the table."

Mrs. Newlyrich: "Mercy. I wouldn't dream of serving any candles stuff."

Customer: "How much are the oranges?"

Girl Clerk: "Seventy cents a dozen."

Customer: "Aren't you a little dear?"

Girl Clerk: "Sir, I'll call the proprietor."

Mother: Vincent, can you tell me what the connected link is between the animal and the vegetable kingdoms?"

Vincent: "Yes, mother, it's hash!"

Lady: "I would like some travelers' checks, please."

D. A. Perry: "What denomination?"

Lady: "Is it necessary to state my religious preference?"

I caught my husband kissing the maid yesterday.

Good heavens, what did you do?

I made him buy me a new dress.

And you fired the girl?

Oh, no, I need a new hat too.

The teacher had been explaining the word "redus" and wanted to see if Mike had benefited by the lesson.

"When your father has finished all the work for the day what does he do?" asked teacher.

Mike shook his head sagely as he replied: "That's what mother's always asking."

Dad: "Ken, do you ever have any difficulty with 'shall' and 'will' in school?"

Kenny: "Never, Teacher says 'You shall' and I say 'I will'."

"Is that fellow a consistent man?"

Frank Craddock: "I should say so; he dresses up every Sunday before as times the Westinghouse in on the church service."

Lady: "Have you any small vest-pocket dictionaries?"

Recall Jod: "Yes, we carry a good line of them."

Lady: "Well, I want one in very large type."

Constable Tate entered Bill Williams' restaurant, and with dignity announced to the man at the table next to ours, "Your car awaits without."

"Without what?" retorted the loud-mouthed gentleman.

"Without lights," said the Constable. "Here's your ticket."

Tony Grogan: "That girl sings like a crow."

"That sir, is my daughter."

Tony: "Yes, I was just saying she sings like a bird."

"Why are you carrying that red lantern?"

"I just found it. Some thoughtless person left it on the street near Dave Gardner's home."

Bill Tierney says he cannot understand all these modern surgical operations. Every time he hears about an operation, a surgeon has taken more out of the patient. Black in the old days at Annapolis, when a surgeon operated, he gave you a sufficiency, and you didn't need to boast about it, or enlarge upon it. You got what was coming to you in the first battle.

Most of us "lumbermen" depended upon the Indians on the Housewife River for medical relief, and believe me, those "squaws" knew a few things, and with a small supply of herbs, saved millions of us Irish lumbermen.

Wife (at recently): "Oh, D. A., isn't it lovely here at Lake Louise where green waves come rolling in?"

D. A.: "Yes, and the greenbacks go rolling out."

Tony Grogan has picked up the following, which he does not claim to be original, but which he loves to recite.

POLITICAL WAR AHEAD

The Conservative party, in choosing Mr. Bennett as leader, has declared for war, in the opinion of the Montreal Star.

"With him at our head," it declares, "we Conservatives will not wait for the Liberal-Progressive government to die on its feet or strangle itself in the intricate coil of its own domestic differences. We will lay down a tolling bell, of spiritual nature, against the critics and that most damnable form of opposition, the urging of an alternative constructive policy."

THE STANDARD NEEDS ADVERTISING COPY MONDAY

The season is at hand when the demands for advertising space is now, and will become heavier, and the Standard requests all advertisers to furnish copy not later than Monday afternoon.

The advertisers are fully as much interested in this request as the Standard, inasmuch as it is impossible for the latter to give a satisfactory service by publishing on Wednesday evening in order that the papers may be distributed to the rural offices on Thursday.

If the mail should be missed, the subscribers are disappointed, and it is impossible to furnish complete service to the advertisers, which the Standard is doing everything possible to supply.

For example, in order to catch the mail last week, it was necessary for the staff to work nearly all night, which should not be necessary under normal conditions.

The delay in copy last week in the mail was caused through interruption of business on account of the holiday.

This request is solely made in the interest of the people who are paying real money for advertising space, and for whom the Standard is aiming to obtain the best possible returns.

AMERICAN MARKET IMPROVING FOR CANADIAN LIVESTOCK

The American Fordney tariff had the effect of reducing agricultural exports from Canada to the United States from over one hundred and fifty million dollars in 1921 to about sixty-five millions in 1927.

The fact is established that for a time the Canadian farmer was very seriously affected, and was given a body blow that threatened to put him back many years, and, in fact, it did put many a well-to-do cattle man out of business, after wiping out his lifetime earnings.

The Canadian farmer, however, by facing the situation with his usual abundant supply of courage, has been busy in the meantime developing new markets, and at the present time many American buyers are coming back in the Canadian market for livestock owing to the scarcity of livestock that now exists in the United States, where the population has increased more in proportion than the livestock.

A number of shipments of cattle have recently been made to Chicago by Canadian shippers, which have turned out very satisfactory financially, notwithstanding the handicap of the high duty.

The outlook for a growing demand in the American market for Canadian livestock is certainly very encouraging, and should have the effect of creating higher prices, and more the raising and feeding of stock once a profitable business.

The hog market is one that is keenly sensitive for the reason that it is international and not local, and this particularly applies to Alberta, which produces a surplus, and hence is governed by the law of supply and demand.

The Calgary market has witnessed fluctuations from $12.50 to as low as $2.50, with a spread variation in comparison with Winnipeg from being $12.50 higher than the latter, to 30-40c lower during a period of less than two months.

The Winnipeg market at times was $2.00 over the Toronto quotations and again $1.00 lower.

The market is subject not only to local conditions, but must meet both the British and American situation.

TO POOL OR NOT TO POOL

The Edmonton Bulletin remarks that payment of the last instalment of the price of wheat of 1925 sold through the Pool has precipitated the annual debate as to whether the farmer who sold through that organization got a better return than the one who sold "on his own." Thus The Calgary Albertan plunges into an exhaustive calculation, from which it emerges with the conclusion that the pool member with a crop of 5,000 bushels of No. 1 Northern in 1926 received for it a total of $5,770.41, while the non-pool farmer with a similar crop received—on the average—a total of $6,970.36. The difference, $1,199.95, is a very substantial sum on a crop of that amount. Calculated on the total yield of about 120,000,000 bushels, the spread claimed

I AM

"I am the Local Weekly. I am the friend of the family, the bringer of glad tidings from other friends; I speak to the home in the evening light of summer's vine-clad porch or the glow of the winter's lamp. I help to make this evening hour; I record the great and the small, the varied acts of the days and weeks to go to make up life. I am for and of the home. I follow those who leave humble beginnings; whether they go to greatness or to the gutter, I take to them the thrill of old days with wholesome tidings; I speak the language of the common man; my words are lifted to his understanding. My congregation is larger than that of any church in town; my readers are more than those in the school. Young and old alike find in me stimulation, instruction, entertainment, inspiration, solace, comfort. I am the chronicler of birth and love, and death—the three great facts of existence.

"I bring together buyer and seller to the benefit of both; I am part of the market place of the world. Into the house I carry the word of the gods which feed, and clothe, and shelter, and which minister to comfort, ease, health, and happiness. I am the work of the week, the history of the year, the record of my community in the archives of the province and dominion. I am the exponent of the lives of my readers. I am the Local Weekly."

Canadian Buyers Profit by Canada's Export Trade

IN the distant reaches of Britain's far-flung empire you will find General Motors cars, built in Canada by Canadian craftsmen, from Canadian materials.

In five years over 110,000 automobiles have been sent overseas by General Motors of Canada to carry the standard of Canadian quality around the world.

This represents a truly important contribution to Canada's export trade.

It represents millions of dollars to be spent in wages to Canadian workmen, in the purchase of Canadian metals, wood, hides and the countless other materials entering into the manufacture of General Motors cars.

And it represents a greatly augmented production of General Motors of Canada, resulting in lower costs of manufacture, in economies of purchasing, in greater savings of time and labor through greater volume.

Thus, because in India, in Egypt, in Malta, Ceylon or South Africa, someone is buying a General Motors car from Canada, General Motors can offer to you, in Canada, a product of higher quality at a lower price than otherwise possible.
